Cut two pieces of 2mm macramé cord, each measuring 70cm. These will be used for the actual braiding. Also, cut a 1mm macramé cord. This will be used to thread the beads onto. Attach the three cords onto the clip on a clip board, placing the thin cord in the middle. Make two double

Loosen the middle cord from the clip at the bottom and thread a bead onto the cord. Re-attach the cord to the clip and make a double braiding before threading another bead onto the cord, pushing it up when needed. See idea No. 12499 on our website for further instructions.

Finish with two double braidings. Trim the ends and glue on the two-part magnetic clasp; one part at each end. Leave to dry.
