1.

Tear a piece of recycled paper a little smaller than the card.

2.

Attach the paper to the card using double-sided adhesive tape.

3.

Attach self-adhesive rhinestone half-pearls onto the punched out cardboard heart.

4.

Tie a bow from the natural hemp and attach it to the heart with a 3D foam pad.

5.

Attach the heart onto the card with 1mm 3D foam pads.

6.

Attach the crown to the card with 3D foam pads.

7.

Attach a self-adhesive rhinestone half-pearl in each corner.

8.

Tie a string around the card vertically.

9.

Use a small heart as a place card and decorate it with a piece of string, a crown and self-adhesive rhinestone half-pearls.

10.

For the napkin ring use a punched out cardboard heart, a crown, self-adhesive rhinestone half-pearls and a piece of string.
