

Decoupage on Glass

Straw silk paper is torn into strips and glued onto candle holders with glass decoupage lacquer. The decorations are cut from the shiny gold paper and glued onto the glass at the end.

Inspiration: 12435

1.

Cut or tear small pieces of straw silk paper. Cut shapes from gold paper.

2.

Apply a coat of glass decoupage lacquer onto the candle holder using a brush.

3.

Place the paper pieces in the lacquer and apply another coat of glass decoupage lacquer. Add the gold paper shapes at the end. Let it dry.